SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Welcome

Dear Friend of Brittany's Hope,

Every child needs a team.

A team that believes in them. Stands beside them. Opens doors. And gives them the opportunity to become everything they were meant to be.

On Saturday, April 17, 2027, we invite you—and your business—to join that team as a sponsor of the 7th Annual Brittany's Hope Ball: Every Child Needs a Team, at the spectacular Historic Star Barn at Stone Gables Estate in Elizabethtown, PA.

This year, we are thrilled to welcome Super Bowl Champion and former All-Pro NFL running back Ricky Watters and his wife, Cat, as our featured guests. Ricky's remarkable career took him from a National Championship at Notre Dame to the NFL, where he starred for the San Francisco 49ers, Philadelphia Eagles, and Seattle Seahawks.

But their story goes far beyond football.

Ricky is an adoptee. Ricky and Cat are adoptive parents. And together, they are passionate advocates and authors for adoption. They understand firsthand what it means for a child to have people in their corner.

For more than 25 years, that has been the work of Brittany's Hope—helping unite more than 1,700 children with special needs with loving families, while providing education, nutrition, medical care, safe homes, vocational opportunities, and hope to thousands more children around the world.

It takes a team. And we need your business on ours.

When you sponsor Brittany's Ball, your company becomes part of something tangible: a child welcomed into a family, a student pursuing an education, a young adult with disabilities discovering purpose, or a child receiving the care and security they need to thrive.

Your sponsorship also showcases your company to over 1,000 guests, business and community leaders, and supporters who value businesses committed to making a difference. Last year, Brittany's Ball raised more than $265,000 for children and families. One night. A quarter of a million dollars. With your help, we hope to make an even greater impact in 2027.

Financial sponsorship opportunities are detailed in this packet. We also welcome in-kind auction donations, including experiences, getaways, dining and gift cards, jewelry, artwork, and other distinctive items.

Join our team—because when the right team comes together around a child, it changes the course of a life.

With gratitude,

Your 2027 Brittany's Ball Committee

Ricky Watters

Super Bowl XXIX champion · 5× Pro Bowl · Notre Dame national champion · Bishop McDevitt High School, Harrisburg

Notre Dame, 1990

Ricky Watters is a Super Bowl champion and former All-Pro running back for the San Francisco 49ers, Philadelphia Eagles and Seattle Seahawks. He rushed for over 1,000 yards with three different teams, scored three touchdowns in Super Bowl XXIX, and won a national championship at Notre Dame. He retired with more than 10,000 career rushing yards and sits just behind Walter Payton for most consecutive starts by an NFL running back.

Ricky was adopted at a young age and was raised in Harrisburg. His mother was a nurse who cared for the elderly; his father was an Army veteran who earned a Purple Heart in the Korean War. Ricky believes being adopted is what drove him to always want to be the best. Coming out of Bishop McDevitt High School, he was the No. 1 college recruit in the country, and he credits his parents, teammates, coaches and mentors for helping him refine his work ethic and reach his full potential on and off the field.

Today Ricky remains passionate about giving back — inspiring youth and raising awareness for children and teens in the foster care system. He is the author of two children's books encouraging adoption, A Gift Called Shane and Little Urchin By The Sea.

“Every child deserves someone in their corner.” — the story Brittany's Hope has told for more than 25 years, and the reason Ricky is joining us in 2027.
